NOTIFICATION

No.J.12012/5/2008-REV, the 19th March, 2008. In partial modification of this Departments, Notification issued vide even No. dt. 4.7.2001 the assessment and verifications for payment of rental charges on lands/buildings occupied by the Security Forces and verification of families whose house buildings were burnt down in the wake of disturbances in the erstwhile Mizo District have been taken up jointly by the Revenue Department and the General Administration. Disbursement of rental charges and compensation of damaged properties have also been taken up by the General Administration Department through the concerned Deputy Commissioner.

In order to eliminate errors and lapses towards obtaining sanction from the Government of India and also of disbursement of the sanctioned amount to the concerned persons/families, the Governor of Mizoram is pleased to order that henceforth assessment of rental charges, disbursement of rental charges and compensation on damaged properties and any other matters connected there with shall be taken up by the Revenue Department alone. However, the Revenue Department may also entrust the task of verification of claims or rental charges to any other agency or authority as it consider necessary. Disbursement of the sanctioned amount to the concerned land owners/families may, further, be taken up by the Director, Land Revenue & Settlement Department subject to issue of clearance by the Administrative Department from time to time.

Lalbiaktluanga Khiangte,
Commissioner/Secretary to the Govt. of Mizoram,
Revenue Department.
